

The chairman's plans to increase the number of stations that a company can own are anti-democratic and not in the best interest of the general public. I strongly oppose them.